

STATE RESPONSIBILITY AREA

7721

(No.73 November 2016)

PRC §4125-4128 establish criteria for classifying certain lands within the State of California as State Responsibility Area (SRA) for fire protection. These code sections state that the Board of Forestry and Fire Protection

"...shall classify all lands within the state, without regard to any classification of lands made by or for any federal agency or purpose, for the purpose of determining areas in which the financial responsibility of preventing and suppressing fires is primarily the responsibility of the state."

Lands owned or controlled by the federal government or any agency of the federal government are excluded. Lands within the exterior boundaries of any incorporated city are also excluded from SRA.
